Other Qualifications:

Certified Public Accountant, Finance Committee Chair and Treasurer of Hushabye Nursery, and judge for the past three years. Venture Clubs of the America Federation President 1998-2000.

Contributions I will make if elected:

As a current member of the Golden West Region Board, I am committed to continue to serve the region in a leadership capacity. I have enjoyed getting to know the membership and I am amazed at the dedication and the service provided by members, clubs, districts and our region. I believe that together we will continue to improve the lives of women all over the world and it is through continued support of our members and the projects completed. I am excited to be part of a dynamic organization that accepts challenges and continues to make a difference. My previous experiences both professionally and personally provide me with the skills to continue to lead this amazing organization.
